

Bolton Family History Society
is part of the:

Manchester & Lancashire
Family History Society
[MLFHS]

Manchester Central Library
St. Peter's Square
Manchester, M2 5PD

Telephone 0161 234 1060
Email: office@mlfhs.org.uk

MLFHS Help Desk
10.30am - 3.30pm
Monday - Friday

The MLFHS also incorporates the Anglo-Scottish Family History Society.
Membership of the MLFHS automatically includes ALL parts of the Society.

Annual subscription £15
[covers 2 family members]

Join the MLFHS online at www.mlfhs.org.uk/join/join.php or at any Bolton FH Society meeting

The benefits of joining the
Bolton Family History Society

- Monthly meetings with speakers on family and local history [There is a charge for non-members]
- Bolton's Genies, a monthly digital newsletter, sign up for it at: <https://goo.gl/4BhVhm>
- Bolton Family History Society website: www.bolton.mlfhs.org.uk
For research advice email: boltonhelpdesk@mlfhs.org.uk
- Help Desk at all Bolton meetings & at Bolton History Centre 1st Sat of the month
- Training courses in family history
- 100 page quarterly MLFHS magazine
- On-line discussion forum
- Presence on Facebook
- Visits organised to places of interest
- Books & Stationary at discount prices
- MLFHS website: www.mlfhs.org.uk

For further details of the
Bolton Family History Society
email the Secretary at: bolton@mlfhs.org.uk

PROGRAMME OF MEETINGS
— 2019 —

Held in the
Montserrat Room [1st floor]
Old Links Golf Club, Chorley Old Road
Bolton, BL1 5SU

Meetings are at 7.30pm, usually on the first Wednesday of the month.

There is a Help Desk before and after each meeting.

Tea/coffee & biscuits available from 7.00pm.
Drinks available from the bar

9th January

[2nd Wednesday of the month]

David Tomlinson

Retired Technical Director of Warburtons

Bread, the Staff of Life.

A look at the history of Warburton's

6th February

Dr. Alan Crosby, MA, DPhil, FRHistS

Family & Local Historian, University Lecturer

A manicurist? in cowboy country:
the adventures of Edith Crosby, 1882-1966

6th March

Mark Campbell

Senior member of the Anglo-Scottish FHS

Pre-registration Scottish research

3rd April

Jackie Depelle

Chair of the Yorkshire Group of Family
History Societies

Ideas for researching non-conformists

1st May

Anna Watson

Retired archivist from Lancashire Archives

Probate records –

wills bring out the worst in people

5th June

Kate Hurst

WDYTYA Researcher

Research, with reference to

Sir Ian McKellen's story

3rd July

Gail Newsham

Official Biographer to the team

The Dick Kerr Ladies Football Team who took the country by storm

7th August

Alan Davies

Miner, Mining Museum Curator

The Pit Brow Women of the

Lancashire coalfield

4th September

Phil Stringer

GENUKI -The free "virtual" reference library

– an update

2nd October

Dr. Mike Newell, MCIFA, FSA

Head of Archaeology, Salford University

The Bridgewater Canal –

an update on recent major discoveries

6th November

Victoria Coyle

The UKBMD website and how to use it

27th November

[last Wednesday in the month]

Christmas supper, by ticket only